

Rest+LESS

“People don’t take trips

...trips take people.”
- John Steinbeck

RestLESS generates
the optimal travel itinerary
based on an adventurer's machine learning.

Our Mission

Whether you are a mountain man or city slicker, our mission is to curate a unique adventure based on your traveler persona.

Unique to you.

Solo Traveler | Dog Friendly | Live Like a Local

With basic traveler preferences, you control the type of trip we generate.

Currently there is no first action, budget driven trip generator that allows you to search a variety of trips that stay within the constraints of your timeframe and budget all while giving you a personalized travel itinerary.

PROBLEM

SOLUTION

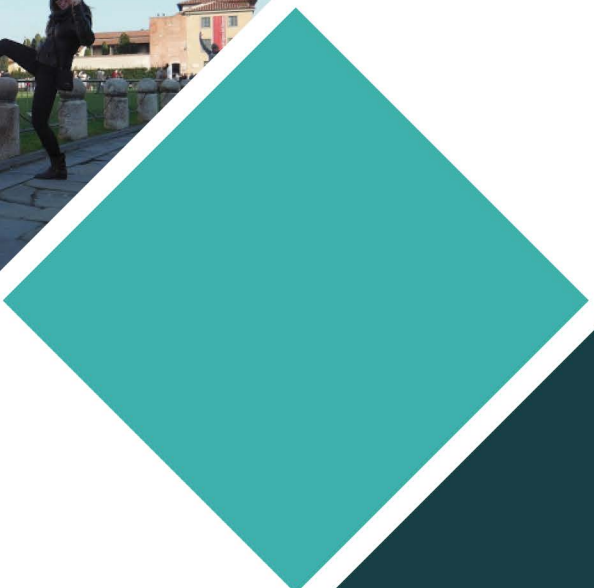

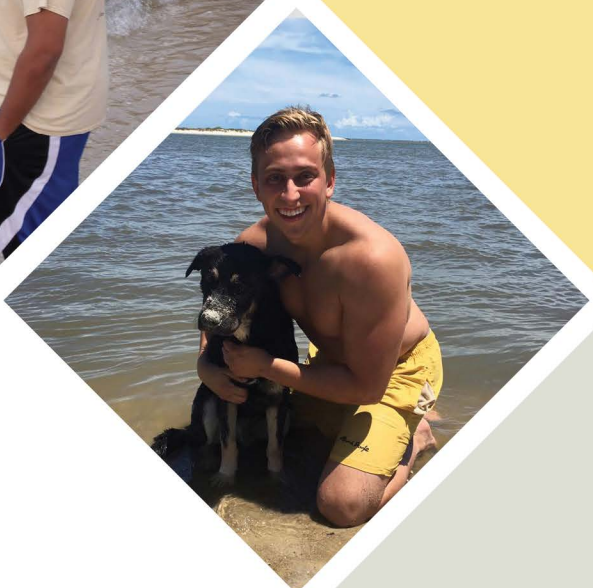

With a refined user input, our solution eliminates the need to search multiple travel sites to book their next trip. We cater to the “luxury spontaneous traveler,” pulling from a comprehensive data set predefined from previous success stories.
